This upcoming week:

English – We have been focussing on the book 'We are all different' and looking at different aspects. This week we will be focussing on emotions. You can label your child's emotions as they happen, show them pictures of happy, sad, angry or tired. Can they copy those facial expressions? You could look in mirrors and pull faces.

Phonics – The children will be listening to environmental sounds, and trying to identify what they can hear. You could label sounds you hear when out and about, or listen to some sounds on youtube to see if they know what they are.

Maths – Colours. The past few weeks we have been identifying colours, over the coming weeks we will be sorting colours. Give your child a selection of different colours and see if they can sort them by colour, model putting them into groups and naming them.

RE – We have been hearing about the creation story and children have been doing some hands-on exploring of the days of creation. This week we will be doing day 5 and 6, looking at the creation of birds and fish and animals and humans. You could read to your child a simplified version of the creation story, talk to them about animals and people they see and know.

Outdoor learning/PE – The children will be creating potions using taste safe ingredients, and practising fine motor movements using playdough.

Notices:

Library books can be exchanged on any day.

Please provide named spare clothes for your child in case of accidents/messy play
